FARLEY CLAIMS G. O. P. COPYING

Declares Landon and Hoover
Have Adopted New Deal
Farm Policy as Their Own.

ALSO HITS LIBERTY LEAGUE

Primaries in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts April 28 Hold Politicians' Attention.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 16—A contention by the new deal high command that Republican leaders have embraced the principles of the Democratic farm program was added today to the growing list of campaign arguments.

With the Illinois and Nebraska
primaries over and a fortnight's
full now before there is more balloting—administration forces and their foes prepared vigorously for the future.

Chairman James A. Farley of
the Democratic national committee,
making a speech at Albany, N. Y.,
last night, said Republicans were taking over new deal policy. He named former President Hoover, former leader of the G. O. P., and
Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

Farley declared that Hoover and Landon have "accepted and adopted
as their own the administration's farm plan."

Farley assailed the American Liberty league, and reiterated his statement that there is "overwhelming evidence" that President Roosevelt will be reelected.

Results of the Illinois and Nebraska primaries continued to command the interest of capital operators. The primaries in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts will be held April 28.

300,772 to 306,461
Latest tallies from Illinois
gave Col. Frank Knox 300,772 votes
to Sen. Borah's 306,461 in the presidential preference voting of the Republican primary. All but 1,400
of the 3,426 precincts had reported.

Knox carried Cook county (Chicago) by a vote of 237,134 to 126-840. In the downstate area, from which most of the missing figures
are to come, Borah led 178,651
to 153,638.

Democratic leaders in the capital
were particularly interested in figures which showed that President Roosevelt, unopposed for renomi-nation, polled 1,138,856 votes with about 6,000 of the state's 7,426 predictor votes. This compared with a combined total of 698,263 for Knox and Borah in 6,005 precincts.

In Cook county, the President received 831,021 votes as compared with the combined total of 694,822
for the Democratic gubernatorial candidates.

Another political development
was the action of the Georgia state Democratic executive committee,
controlled by Gov. Eugene Talmadge, foe of the new deal, in settling the long-debated question of holding a statewide primary.

The committee voted to hold the primary June 3 with an entrance
fee of $10,000 for presidential candidates. Marion Allen, state manager for Mr. Roosevelt, had demanded a primary.

A new movement to persuade Sen.
Norris, Republican of Nebraska,
to run for reelection, as an independent was started by Sen. Burke, Democrat of Nebraska, who was elected national committeeman in the primary Tuesday.

Burke announced he would not support Terry Carpenter, apparent
winner of the Democratic nomination for senator over J. C. Guigler,
state party chairman.

Norris did not file for nomination in the primaries.

CONSERVATION POLICY LAUDED BY ROOSEVELT

President Dedicates New Building and Promises To Save Natural Wealth.

POINTS TO U. S. FUTURE

Lauds Chief Executive
as Greatest Protector of Nation's Resources in History.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 16—The cornerstone of the new $12,000,000
interior department building was laid today by President Roosevelt who pledged renewed federal efforts to conserve the nation's natural resources.

"As I view this serviceable new structure," the President said, "I like to think of it as symbolical
of the nation's vast resources that we are sworn to protect and this stone that I am about to lay, as
the cornerstone of a conservation
policy that will guarantee future Americans the richness of their heritage."

Lauds Chief Executive
as Greatest Protector of Na-
tion's Resources in History.

Secretary Ickes, summarizing efforts to prevent waste of natural resources on both private land
and the public domain, called his chief "the greatest conservationist
in American history." He also asked congress to change the name of his department to "conservation" from "interior."

Members of the cabinet, and other officials looked on as the President, using the trowel with which George Washington laid the cornerstone of the Capitol building in 1793, sealed within the foundation
stone of the huge new structure
an American flag, a Bible, a pamphlet on the Constitution, a bronze medalion of himself, an autographed photograph of Ickes,
and records showing present activities of the interior department.

"Every American who loves his country," the President said,
"should take to heart the earnest
pleas of the secretary of the interior for a vigorous, continuing national policy of conservation. As for myself I am dedicated to this cause."

Holds Conservation Necessary.
"A nation less beautifully endowed than ours without a national policy of conservation would have ceased to exist long ago. The remarkable thing was that the people of the United States were so complacent for so long in the face of exploitation, waste and mismanagement, yes, even larceny
of the natural wealth that belonged to all the people."

Reminding that the building
was financed with a PWA allotment, Mr. Roosevelt said it was a part of the program "which has already been successful in aiding the returning of the nation
to better times."

Jokes said that "more has been done during the slightly more than three years of the present administration in the direction of preserving and rebuilding the natural resources of America than has been done in any comparable time
in our history."

USE TAX RETURN PERIOD EXTENDED

Sales Levy Payments Required
on All Articles Purchased Outside State.

Although the deadline for filing
state use tax returns arrived today Carroll W. Davidson, sales tax examiner for Marion county, announced the filing period will continue a few more days and urged residents, who have purchased tangible personal property from merchants or companies outside
the state of Ohio to make their report to him at once in the county commissioner's office in the courthouse.

All purchases made outside the state between Jan. 1 and March 31 are to be listed for taxation
purposes at the same rates as the state sales tax. Blanks for making this return may be obtained
from Mr. Davidson. The tax examiner explained that the use tax
is collectable on all property, the sale of which would have been subject to the sales tax had it been purchased in Ohio. For instance, he pointed out, if a resident purchased a radio from a Detroit firm he is required to report this purchase on his use tax return and pay the tax set under the tax law. Failure to file a return will make the consumer
liable for the amount of the tax
due plus a 15 per cent penalty,
and may subject him to a fine.
The revenue derived from the use
tax is credited to the state public school fund.

College Student Kills Self When Caught in Store

Takes Hardware Merchant's
Revolver To Inflict Fatal
Wound in His Head.

By The Associated Press
RAVENNA, O., April 16—Robert
Moore, 19-year-old Hiram college
sophomore, shot and fatally wounded himself early today when policemen apprehended him in a hardware store which he had entered through a rear window.

Police Chief Fred Hendricks said
the youth used a revolver which he took from a show-case in the store to inflict a head wound. He died in a Ravenna hospital five hours later without regaining consciousness.

Libson Attorney's Son
President Kenneth I. Brown of Hiram, identified Moore as the son
of W. G. Moore, prominent Libson, O., attorney.

"The boy was never in trouble
before," the police chief quoted Moore's father as saying on his arrival after being notified of his son's death.

Patrolman Charles Jones said he discovered an open window in the Ravenna hardware store as he made his rounds at 2:15 a. m. Investigating, he found the rear door
unlocked.

Jones summoned Officers Leo Damicone and Karl Baker, and the three entered. Preliminary search Jones said, failed to reveal an intruder. They notified Jack Yoder,
store manager, to lock the establishment.

Seen Shadow of Head
While awaiting Yoder, Jones said,
one of the officers discovered the shadowy outline of a man's head
in a storage compartment for merchandise.

"Come down out of there," Jones
said the officer ordered.

Without a word, the officer quoted
bullet into his head.

Letters in the youth's clothing
indicated his identity, whereupon Chief Hendricks summoned college authorities.

Moore was a student of higher
than average intelligence, Hendricks said he was told. Police said a brother, Patton Moore, is a student at Western Reserve university, Cleveland.

Marion Pan-American Medical Society Objects to Proposed Change.

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED

Criticizes "Precipitate" Action
and "Railroading of Ordinance"
Through Council.

A motion that a committee of three members be appointed to protect "the precipitate action
of the mayor and council in discharging trusted and competent employees of the Marion City hospital," was passed unanimously at a luncheon meeting of the Marion chapter of the Pan-American Medical society yesterday
at Hotel Harding.

The action followed a meeting of
city council Monday night in which the positions of superintendent-
manager and supervisor of nurses
of the hospital were abolished, and
the office of superintendent created.

The motion adopted stated
further "that we object to the railroading of this ordinance through council by waiving all rules of procedure and not reading the ordinance three times before voting on it, and calling it an emergency measure which it was not."

"That we object to having our
city hospital staff and our patients
subjected to such worry, anxiety
and chaos following such sudden changes."

Second To Protest
This is the second Marion medical group to protest the changes in the hospital staff. Tuesday night
the Marion Academy of Medicine
in a meeting at the hospital
adopted a resolution requesting Mayor F. C. Smith to use his influence to have council repeal its action making the changes. At that time Mayor Smith told the physicians he believed the changes were
for the best interests of the hospital and that he would do nothing
to cause council to repeal its action,
which he had recommended.

Committee Named
Dr. J. G. McNamara, president,
named Dr. R. T. Morgan, Dr. E. L.
Brady and Dr. N. Bliffitt to represent the society in presenting the protest.

A short paper on "Habitual Bullitt" was read by Dr. C. L. Pitcher of Morral. Recurring stillbirths are usually caused by syphilis, he said, although the cause may be such constitutional disorders as Bright's disease, anemia, diabetes,
and hypothyroidism, and in a few
cases infection from teeth and tonsils.

The next meeting will be held on May 20.

QUINTUPLETS BORN TO GYPSIES STRICKEN

Physicians Claim Children

Survive.

By The Associated Press
BUCHAREST, Rumania, April 16
—Authorities at Oradea reported
today that quintuplets born to a Gypsy mother near that city had died.

Physicians said that the children
were too badly malformed to live.
The children and their mother,
Mrs. Maria Linguraru, 25, were rushed by gendarmes from Hodos,
in the Mjhor district of Transylvania, to a hospital in Oradea,
where Dr. Georg Jankulisku asserted the quintuplets "cannot live."

One of the five was born separately, he said, the others joined in pairs. Gov. Johan Piku of the Banjyla district and Dr. Janku-lisku said the children were "not like children," at all in appearance.

The mother was reported recovering from the ordeal. She was aided only by her husband, Alexander Linguraru, who had gone
with her into a field to work.

Dr. Jankulisku declared the births premature.

BRITAIN HANGS MOTHER OF FIVE

Woman, 34, Goes to Gallows
for Poison Killing of Crippled Patient at Her Home.

WAVE OF PROTEST FUTILE
King Only One Who Could
Have Saved Her After Home
Secretary Refuses.

By The Associated Press
BIRMINGHAM, Eng., April 16—
Mrs. Dorothy Waddingham, 34-
year-old mother of five children,
was hanged in the Winstan Green prison today for the poison slay-ing of a 38-year-old crippled
patient in her Nottingham nursing home.

King Edward himself was the only one who could have saved
the woman from the gallows by granting a last-minute reprieve,
after Home Secretary Sir John
Simon denied appeals for clemency.

A wave of protest throughout Britain over the hanging of the mother of five children, including
a six-month-old baby, was countered by press statements, term-
ing the poison death of the patient, 50-year-old Ada Louise Hagley, a flagrant offense. Mrs. Waddingham
also was accused, but not convicted, of the death of Miss Bag-
ley's aged mother.

Papers Oppose Mercy
Newspapers insisted the crime
must have been premeditated and
that even the strong recommendation
of mercy by the jury which convicted Mrs. Waddingham Feb.
27 should not be allowed to deter
the punishment.

A last over-night appeal to the home office having been rejected, the nurse was led to the gallows and the trap was sprung
shortly after 9:00 a. m. (4:00
a. m. E. S. T.) on the sixth way man to be executed in Great Britain since the start of the century.

A crowd of 1,000 people stood outside the prison to witness the execution. The nurse was hanged

Half Million Flood Relief Bill and $125,000 Xenia Orphans' School Meas- ure Vetoed.

HORSE BARN CUT OFF

Building at State Fairgrounds Called for Expenditure of $100,000;
Lake Erie Job Killed.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., April 16—Three more appropriation bills fell under Gov. Martin L. Davey's veto ax today, increasing to $739,000 the legislature-approved grants disapproved
by the executive.

The governor followed up his disapproval of a $500,000 flood relief
bill with veto of $125,000 for a new school at the Ohio Soldiers'
and Sailors' Orphans' home at Xenia, $100,000 for a new horse
barn at the state fair grounds and $16,000 for a rotary fund for a Lake
Erie soil erosion study.

Womster Appropriation Okayed
A section of the horse barn appropriation bill allowing $5,000 to the Womster Agriculture Experimental station received executive approval. It was the third time that he had refused to approve
funds for a new school building at the orphan's home.

In vetoing the flood relief measure, Gov. Davey said no specific allocations were made for the proposed appropriation which "would hold out false hopes to many thousands of poor victims of the flood,
when they could not be directly benefited."

The legislation called for the
appropriation to go to the state
emergency board, whose duty it is to make appropriations where advisable.

Says Money Not Available
In vetoing the appropriation for the school building, the governor
said that the money would not be available in the general revenue
fund and that the present structure
was not in bad condition.

He suggested revival of his proposed state building modernization
program, which the legislature re-

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Sore Throat.

Cold and inflammations of the upper air passages are exceedingly common. There is always an increase of sore throats, laryngitis, bronchitis or pneumonia when there are sudden and unexpected changes in weather. In many instances one of these conditions can be traced to neglect of a simple cold.

This form of sore throat which the doctors call "pharyngitis" starts as a head cold. Then the throat feels stiff and dry. At times the glands of the neck become swollen and painful to touch. Swallowing is difficult and fever is present.

As a rule an inflamed throat is associated with some annoying type of cough, particularly when the mucus is uncomfortably dry. Sometimes swollen red spots are seen on the back wall of the throat. It is unfortunate that many persons neglect sore throat, regarding it as a trivial ailment. I venture to say that if early attention were given, there would be fewer cases of serious infection of the lower portion of the breathing apparatus.

A person with a sore throat, and especially if a cough is present, should stay at home. If one wishes to take no chance of complications, it is a wise to go to bed at once. In advanced life, certainly, it is important to conserve the strength and energy.

If these precautions are taken there will be less danger of extension of the inflammation from the throat into the bronchial tubes or lungs. In this way bronchitis and pneumonia will be avoided.

Laryngitis is a common complication of what begins as a simple sore throat. The inflammation extends to the vocal cords and the larynx. When this happens the voice becomes husky and it may be impossible to talk out loud.

As in ordinary sore throat, laryngitis is best treated by rest in bed, drinking copious amounts of water, and using some soothing medicine the doctor will give. Avoid cold air and irritating dust and smoke. Smoking and talking should be done in extreme moderation.

Sore throat is a sign of infection and, as I have said, must not be regarded as a trivial ailment. If you are subject to colds and sore throats consult with your doctor.

The tendency to this ailment may be due to enlarged and inflamed tonsils, nasal sinus trouble, infected teeth. Your doctor will tell you about diet and other beneficial health-promoting measures.

JOB INSURANCE LAW IS UPHELD

Foundation Stone of New Deal Security Act Wins in New York Court.

By The Associated Press
ALBANY, N. Y., April 13.—A foundation stone to the new deal's social security program—New York state's unemployment insurance law—was held constitutional yesterday by the court of appeals. In a five-to-two decision the court said bluntly that it could see "nothing unreasonable or unconstitutional" in the legislative act which seeks to meet the evils and dangers of unemployment in the future by raising a fund through taxation of employers generally.

The law was passed last year by the Democratic-controlled legislature under the insistence of Gov. Herbert H. Lehman who has since declared that the social security program is "the most progressive piece of social and humane legislation ever enacted in this country."

Points to Relief
In the majority opinion, Chief Judge Frederick Crane said "The fact is that in the past few years enormous sums of state and federal money have been spent to keep housed and alive the families of those out of work who could not get employment."

Then declaring that "help was absolutely necessary," Chief Judge Crane asserted that "it would be a strange kind of government, in fact no government at all, which could not give help in such trouble."
The law, expected to furnish a model for other states, went into effect Jan. 1. In 1934 employers of four or more persons must pay a tax of one per cent of the pay rolls of those employees receiving less than $2,500 annually. In 1937 the rate is raised to two per cent and in 1938 to three per cent. Drawings of benefits will start in 1938. The law affects only employees receiving less than $2,500.

A final ruling from the United States supreme court will be sought at once, it was indicated.

Other Case Heard
Two cases were before the court. One involved the appeal of the W. H. H. Chamberlin, Inc., and E. C. Richards & Co. of Syracuse and the other the Associated Industries of New York state against the state labor department.

All Must Pay
"There have always been from the earliest the poor and unfortunate whom the state has had to support by means of money raised by taxation," Judge Crane said.

"Instead of solely taxing all the people directly, it (the legislature) has passed a law whereby employers are taxed for the help of the unemployed, the sums thus paid being cast upon the public generally through the natural increase in the price of commodities."

In the dissenting opinion, Judge Hubbs raised the point that in order to draw benefits a worker does not have to suffer involuntary unemployment. He also cited lack of a merit rating system which would reduce contributions of employers whose businesses have low unemployment, and the lack of employee or state contributions to the "pool."

Estranged Mate of Piqua Heir to Felt Fortune Greets Verdict with Smile.

By The Associated Press
MIAMI, Fla., April 13.—A six-man jury, after deliberating most of the day, yesterday granted Mrs. Gladys Orr $25,000 in her $100,000 allegation of affectionate suit against Mrs. Dorothy Clark, attractive divorcee of Philadelphia and New York, charged with stealing the love of Morrison T. Orr, Piqua, O. heir to a felt fortune.

The auburn-haired Mrs. Orr who sobbed while a witness told of her estrangement from her husband, received the verdict with a broad smile.

With her was her 15-year-old son, William Orr, who testified in her behalf. She left the courtroom immediately with her attorney, declining comment on the case.

It appeared the jury, composed of business men, had some difficulty in reaching an agreement. Beginning their deliberations at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, they afterward came out for further instructions from Circuit Judge W. W. Trammell. During the day they sent out numerous requests as to what procedure to follow.

Both Mrs. Clark, a pretty blond divorcee, and Orr attended the trial, but neither took the witness stand to answer Mrs. Orr's charges.

However, Mrs. Clark's counsel attempted to show with other testimony that the wife lost Orr's love because of her alleged misconduct with other men.

A second $100,000 suit, in which Mrs. Orr charges Mrs. Clark and Orr's mother, Mrs. Eliza Orr, with conspiracy to alienate his affections, will start Monday.

ON THE POLITICAL FRONT

Henry A. Wallace

By The Associated Press
Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, can expect to live in a suitcase when the heavy campaign artillery opens fire in the early fall.

His function is obvious: to explain the farm program. His importance scarcely can be overestimated. A liberal Republican when he entered the cabinet, he goes to the mat for the "new deal" in the west where liberalism most frequently ignores party lines. And the campaign, say the wizards, will be won or lost in the west where Wallace will be trying to gather the farmers about him.

The Wallace name has been synonymous with agriculture for years. The father of the present secretary was secretary of agriculture under a Republican administration.

He is young, personable, and he makes a convincing speech peppered with picturesque phrases. In the past four years he has withstood flurries of criticism, traded shot for shot, and come up smiling.

TROUT FISHING OF LITTLE INTEREST HERE

No Streams in This Territory Afford This Sport; Spawning Areas Closed.

An announcement made Tuesday from the office of the Ohio conservation council that anglers are discouraged to fish for trout in the streams holds little interest in the residents of the Marion district, according to O. H. Neimeyer, state game warden.

There are only three excellent trout streams in Ohio open to the public and all are located in south-western part of the state, Mr. Neimeyer said. In discussing trout streams, Mr. Neimeyer said that two points in the county are closed to permit spawning. The Scioto river is closed a point south of Prospect and a mile on either side of the dam located on the Delaware river. The Olentangy river is also closed for a two-mile stretch beginning at a point a mile south of Claridon.

The trout were stocked in the territory last spring. At that time the conservation council placed black bass, channel catfish, rock bass, bull heads and crappie. An application has been made this season for additional fish for stocking purposes, Mr. Neimeyer said.

TO SPEAK HERE

GEORGE B. CHANDLER

OHIO C. OF C. HEAD TO BE HERE FRIDAY

George B. Chandler Will Talk on Social Security Act and Unemployment Insurance.

George B. Chandler of Columbus, secretary of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, will address a public meeting Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Marion Steam Shovel Co. gymnasium.

This will be his second appearance here in the last few weeks. On his previous visit he addressed a dinner meeting at the Hotel Harding on the theme of the social security act and its effect on the worker and the employer. The meeting was sponsored by the Marion Chamber of Commerce.

Because of the many demands for him to return and continue the discussion of the subject, Mr. Chandler has consented to return Friday night. The meeting is being held at the Steam Shovel company gymnasium in order that a larger number may be accommodated. Arrangements for the meeting are being made by J. H. Walters, president of the Steam Shovel company.

"The Social Security Act and Unemployment Insurance," will be the topic of his address. In recent months Mr. Chandler has addressed audiences in a number of Ohio cities on the general subject of the social security program of the Roosevelt administration.

ANOTHER PICTURE ON CLUB PROGRAM

Hobby Group To Show Movie Monday Night at School.

Another motion picture reel has been added to the two already announced for the free show which the Marion Hobby club will give Monday night at 7:30 at the Central Junior High school.

In addition to an Ohio travel picture and a government film showing the printing of stamps, the club has secured "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," a film recently designated the official motion picture of the American league.

Every one in Marion has been invited to attend the club's "theater party."

The baseball film takes the spectator behind the scenes at the major league parks, giving him a thorough education in the fundamentals of pitching, catching, batting, fielding and base running, as well as an insight into the difficult job of umpiring a game.

TO FORM TOWNSEND CLUB AUXILIARY

Initial plans for formation of a Townsend club auxiliary were discussed at a meeting of the ladies of the Marion Townsend club No. 1 and 2 yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas McKinstry of 126 Canby court. The group will meet Wednesday night, April 22, in the common pleas court room to complete organization of the auxiliary. Mrs. Lewis Fenburg of Findlay, Townsend auxiliary club organizer, will speak.

TO 10,000 SOHIO SERVICEMEN AND DEALERS EMERGENCY BULLETIN

—CONCERNING THE ONE BILLION DOLLARS INVESTED IN THE AUTOMOBILES OF OHIO MOTORISTS

AT THE BEGINNING of the heavy driving season of Spring and Summer, we are requesting every Sohioan to review our established service routine presented below. The value of this procedure to our customers has been proved. It is important that it be carried out consistently.

With today's high speed motors being subjected to longer annual mileage than ever before, the need for this helpful cooperation with our customers has been greatly increased.

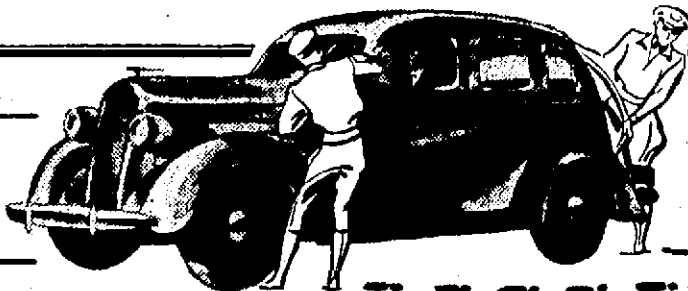

It is a matter of common knowledge that the majority of motor failures result from inadequate lubrication. This, generally, could be avoided if motorists would check the level and condition of motor oil more frequently—or would allow others to check it for them.

A recent investigation shows that four out of every ten cars on the road today need lubrication service at this very minute.

In view of these facts, it is readily apparent that the accurate checking of the oil and lubrication requirements of all cars that visit our stations is a responsibility that we, or our patrons, cannot take too seriously.

In the main, car-owners realize that proper lubrication is the most important factor in car up-keep and have no desire to slight it. But through oversight they often do so unless we who serve them are on the alert. Let us be extremely careful that we render the oil and lubrication checking service that is so useful to them, and that they have every right to expect.

The STANDARD OIL Company (Ohio)

FIRST, FILL THE CUSTOMER'S ORDER, USUALLY FOR GASOLINE

SEE THAT WINDSHIELD AND REAR WINDOW ARE CLEAN—FOR SAFE DRIVING

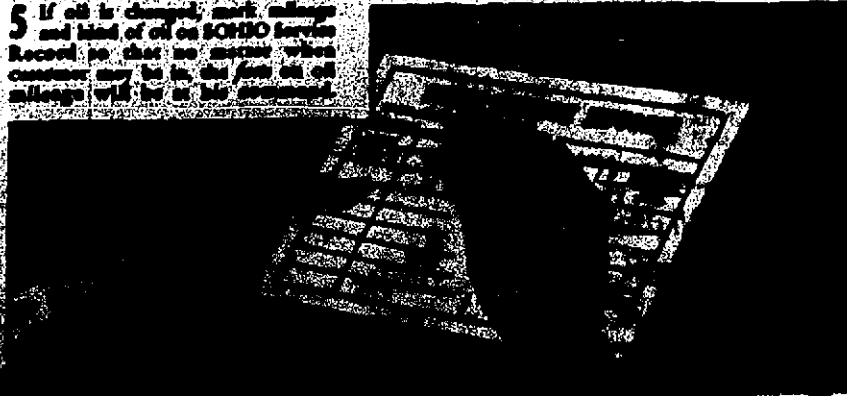

2 Remove oil bayonet, wipe it clean. Then reinsert it to measure oil level.

3 Holding cloth or paper napkin under bayonet, show oil level to customer. Markings on bayonet indicate quantity of oil in crankcase—wiping bayonet will often show condition of oil.

4 Check present mileage against SOHIO under-hood service record. Tell customer present mileage of oil and, if change is due, remind customer that it will take only 8 to 9 minutes.

5 If oil is changed, mark mileage and kind of oil on SOHIO Service Record so that no mistake when customer may be in the line for oil mileage will be in his account.

Smelling Expeditions.

Discussions of the power of investigation as exercised by congress and its commission agents has become needlessly complex. It is only, accordingly, a matter of law. Primarily it is a matter of tradition right, a question rising directly from a recognized threat to the principles of freedom on which American government stands. Laws including the fundamental law of the Constitution are merely the instruments by which the people protect their rights. It is therefore useless to try to work through a maze of legal technicalities when the objective may be reached directly by following the course marked plainly by principles.

Americans instinctively object to the power of investigation used as a warrant for what is best described as a smelling expedition. They object to a policy of investigation which entails the assumption that their traditional rights should be suspended by inquisitors who hope to turn up damaging evidence by probing into private affairs. That is a device of oppressors as old as government to outlaw if the founding fathers of the nation caused to be included in the bill of rights an article specifically denying government the power to make unreasonable searches and seizures.

The spirit of that article which embodies a fundamental principle of free government has been challenged. Whatever courts may rule and whatever special pleaders may say the fact is fixed. There exist in the United States today as there have existed at all times in the past men who do not hesitate to contravene constitutional rights. Tragically their undermining of freedom nearly always is undertaken in the name of some good cause. Frequently they do not recognize the significance of what they are doing.

Obviously they must be opposed not only by action in the courts but by general objection throughout the country. It would be fatal in such a crisis to encourage their encroachments on liberty by apathy. They must be made to feel as they have been made to feel before that the people will come to the defense of their own liberty when it is threatened.

Visiting Firemen.

The traffic situation in Washington is bad. Visiting firemen have been aware of the fact for years and now their capital hosts are waking up to the fact that the city where laws are made has earned a reputation as the city where traffic laws are broken.

Congressional committees which run the District of Columbia are getting braced to do something about it. They don't know what it will be but that is not unusual when congressmen feel the urge to do something. Some new laws may be enacted or some old ones repealed.

Perhaps by the time pilgrimages to Washington become common again this summer an innocent motorist brought up in a community where most drivers look where they're going and go where they're looking will be as safe on DuPont Circle as he is on Main street back home.

Still even safety demands its price. If and when visiting firemen can visit Washington in their automobiles without a creased fender as a memento of the broadening influence of travel what will they have to tell about when they get back home? Washington then would be little more exciting than any other city in the land with only the Washington monument and the Smithsonian Institute to lift it above the dull level of mediocrity.

What Is Plagiarism?

It is almost unfair to face a country boy even one 18 years old with a dark somber word like plagiarism as stern New Yorkers did when they confronted Lloyd Lewis Plattburg. Mr. winner of Eddie Cantor's $5,000 peace essay contest.

Lloyd as most newspaper readers know, wanted a college education. What more natural when he heard of the contest offering a scholarship than to hunt through magazines and pick out the best essay on peace? What more understandable than that he reduce the selected essay to the necessary number of words and send it to New York?

The secret didn't last long. Some old meanie discovered the essay was copied from an article by a college president. So they started telling Lloyd about plagiarism. They explained how in this peculiar old world, despite politicians and their view- ing with alarm there are certain codes of honor which men must observe. A man even may be allowed to copyright his ideas.

So Lloyd learned some elementary lessons in honesty.

He knows what plagiarism means now. It cost him $5,000 to learn. If the rumor be true that Eddie Cantor will see he gets to college anyway, Lloyd will know one thing that many of his freshman class mates won't know.

A Believable Prediction.

It is to be expected that political campaign managers always will claim the moon in advance of the voters' decision. That is part of the game. A candidate without a handwagon is out of the parade.

There is nothing surprising therefore in the prediction by John M. Hamilton manager of Gov. Landon's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, that the Landon will be nominated not later than the third ballot next June in the national convention at Cleveland. Mr. Hamilton means, in doing what a campaign manager is supposed to do.

Strangely enough his prediction is believable. Even the men who are trying to stop Landon have to admit there is plenty of substance to Mr. Hamilton's claim. Without stretching imagination unduly one can see more than 200 votes for Gov. Landon on the first ballot. It seems probable at the moment that Gov. Landon may pick up more than 200 additional votes on the second ballot. The first candidate to get 300 votes will win the nomination. Many cautious analysts are saying they do not see how Gov. Landon can fail to become the Republican candidate.

Yet he is not campaigning. Father he is sticking closely to his desk in Topeka. That does not mean he does not want the nomination. It does convey directly, the idea that he does not want the nomination unless he can get it by acclaim. He does not choose to seek the job but if the job seeks him he will become an active leader. The country is scantily acquainted with Gov. Landon but already he has attracted favorable attention simply by refusing to try to attract it. Ordinary politicians don't act that way.

Until a few weeks ago Gov. Landon did not have even a campaign manager to look after his interests. It is significant of the remarkable strength of his candidacy that a prediction of nomination not later than the third ballot should be so easily believable. There has been a notable absence of the usual hushhush in all other things concerning Gov. Landon so it is natural to assume that here is at least one political handwagon which is rolling along of its own accord.

Marriage Reform.

Marriage reforms suggested for Ohio touch upon the interests of every man and woman in the state since they strike into the heart of a vexatious problem. Primarily investigators believe that the obtaining of a health certificate should be mandatory upon couples about to marry. Such certificates would not only certify that applicants were free from venereal diseases but would also report that check had been made for evidences of epilepsy, insanity, inebriety or other possibly communicable defects. Rating of the age limit, furnishing of additional information by the applicants and the issuing of licenses by the probate court are other recommendations made by the report.

However well intentioned the recommendations may be it must be realized they are only legislative in nature and can not help much in situations hanging upon the personal complexities of this vital social relationship. Moreover the legal approach brings its own complications as several years experience with the five-day license law has proved.

If people want to get married in a hurry they can skip over the line to West Virginia or Pennsylvania where the law smiles more kindly upon romance. If they wish to avoid the health certificate requirements the license provisions or the age limitations they may also take a walk clearly before these legal reforms are halted as a solution consideration must be given to the possibility of securing cooperation from other states. Uniformity of the law between states must be the basis of any statutory changes just as popular acceptance of the reforms must sanction them if they are to be enforceable.

President's Speech in Dignified Tone

Roosevelt Has Happy Faculty of Injecting Surprises into Politics Such as Tenor of Baltimore Speech.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
 Copyright, 1933, by The Marion Star

WASHINGTON, April 13.—President Roosevelt has the happy faculty of injecting surprises in politics and his speech at Baltimore before the young Democrats was no exception.

Just when it was assumed that the President would deliver one of those fiery political utterances of the "hit-them again" variety which delights the onlookers and listeners at a political rally, Mr. Roosevelt assumed the dignified restrained and moderate tone.

Had Mr. Roosevelt delivered his state-of-the-union speech of last January at the Baltimore rally and had he written his January message to congress in the vein that characterized his Baltimore address of this week there would have been little adverse comment.

As a matter of fact the Baltimore speech is more in keeping with what a President seeking reelection ought to deliver. And while there were in that particular speech certain points on which one might differ especially as to the practicability of the solutions offered it cannot be denied that Mr. Roosevelt did what his Republican opponents consistently fail to do—he focused attention on the humanitarian aspects of the problems of present-day America.

Mr. Roosevelt's phrase, social pioneering, is in itself a novel challenge. The President intimated that the government has certain obligations to the youth of the country. It admits that experiments may fail but he avers the principle of continued attack on a vital problem and by inference calls on his opponents to show wherein they have in any way met the challenge.

The President's speech reveals no new philosophy nor any new public policy. He still clings to the idea that all would be well in America if the hours of work were shortened and if industry paid the same for 36 hours per week as it does for 40. He maintains also that the increase in purchasing power and income in jobs would come from such a procedure. Unfortunately the President's thesis has been proved unworkable by such disinterested and non-partisan agencies of research as the Brookings Institution. To reduce hours without altering the pay envelope in but another way to urge an increase in the cost of living. There can be no doubt that industry in some instances can do precisely as the President asks, especially in businesses that are prospering. But what can be said of the textile industry, for instance where the world market for our cotton goods has been cut down because of the high prices for raw cotton set up artificially under the AAA?

Mr. Roosevelt however was addressing a political rally. He was probably trying to inject something into the campaign to focus the broad aspects of the unemployment situation as it affects the youth of the country. The address is vulnerable in many parts because after all the industrial system of America cannot function if government is to control it and the real problem is how to translate such noble aspirations as Mr. Roosevelt expresses into practical achievement without at the same time breaking down the industrial machine as a whole.

Thus today industry is talking and thinking and worrying about taxes. Prices to the consumer are too high to raise to pay for much of the new taxes. And the taxes in turn are made necessary because government is spending in unproductive ways and in projects that are costly to the industry itself.

Notwithstanding these flaws in the address it was nevertheless an excellent political document. It may disappoint those Democratic chieftains in the local machines who have come to expect denunciations of Roosevelt from Mr. Roosevelt but it will please everyone who wants to see the coming campaign debate conducted on a level of intelligent reasoning and in good temper.

If all the speeches of the 1936 campaign by the candidates are in the same tone as that delivered at Baltimore by Mr. Roosevelt the American people will have cause for rejoicing. And incidentally whatever the Republicans may say about the Roosevelt address it was to be sure provocative. Where it might be asked is the social planning of the Republicans or of other anti-new deal groups?

It is becoming more and more evident that a negative campaign may be convincing to those who have already made up their minds to vote against Mr. Roosevelt but it will not win the votes of those who regard the new deal with all its mistakes as an honest effort in the right direction. The opposition will find it necessary therefore to offer not necessarily a detailed program or panacea but at least a set of principles covering the social responsibilities of the citizen as well as his government. There is plenty of evidence moreover that the government has increased its influence in economic affairs of the citizen through the debt and work relief has diminished his own sense of responsibility for his future. If the decision is to turn on social pioneering the question may well be asked whether faulty relief methods have not been an impediment to human recovery instead of an economic aid after depression.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. Scott

A LOCOMOTIVE OF 1862 IS PICTURED ON THIS 1933 EGYPTIAN STAMP

It has been estimated that it would take an expert mathematician about five hours to figure out all the movements required to catch a baseball—a thing that the human mind and eye can do in the fraction of a second!

more experience. Baltimoreans frequently applauded at the wrong time and did not always laugh at the right time.

This is considered to be bad for radio distribution. Timely applause and laughter helps to a press proper point.

It is no unusual for campaigners to pass out in advance half a dozen copies of their speeches marked at the spots where applause and laughter are expected. This may be done with the next one.

Tip
 Despite what house leaders are saying a chain store bill will be passed by the house. It will be brought up when a congressional program and conservative returns but in between there is the great bulk whose paths are not as clearly defined on current legislative problems.

Their letters from back home lately have been confusing. Home folks seem to be radically divided on most of the supposedly burning issues. Also some of the boys here have lately grasped torches like that of Dr. Townsend and have been scorched when it burned out too fast.

Transitions
 Prize example cited by the old Union is of course the Townsend case. Only a few weeks ago it was considered wise for all men in public life to get on that band wagon or at least walk beside it. But the band wagon has more recently developed signs of turning out to be a one horse shay.

Before that band wagon which passed in the night included NRA, AAA, Huey Long, Father Coughlin. The boys wonder who or what will be next if anyone or anything.

The old timer says he is going to follow the example of that former senator from the Pacific coast who consulted a fortune teller to find out what to be for.

Caution
 Political technicians noticed a vague hint of the same feeling between the lines of President Roosevelt's Baltimore speech. He told industrialists that if they do not give jobs to all over eight and under 15 he will but he did not say where, how or when. He worked in a hint that young men made the Constitution and young men might revise it but did not directly connect up the two thoughts.

The answer to that seems to be that the speech was hastily thrown together. When he reached for material for it the President is supposed to have lifted the latest portion from suggested texts furnished privately by Harry Hopkins and Aubrey Williams. They are the employment and youth experts.

Their spokesmen whisper that they have several things in mind but nothing as definite as the President's tone implied. One of this group says the President's main purpose was to have the supreme court read the speech before rendering the Guffey coal opinion.

Management
 Around the White House there is talk of designating someone to prepare audiences for presidential speeches as a result of the Baltimore experience.

On the house side also Lobbyist Lewis is said to have supplied the new PWA bloc leaders with charts and other information to get $500,000 of the new $1,500,000,000 relief fund earmarked for PWA. Most congressmen have been expecting the situation to result in an open break between Lewis and the White House.

Did you know that congress appropriated $300,000,000 to run the entire government in 1877 and in 1918 (fiscal year) appropriated $2 times as much? These represent the high and low price time appropriations by congress since 1873. (Copyright 1933 by R. J. Scott)

In Ohio History

GEAUGA
 Although the list of Ohio counties is well sprinkled with names of Indian origin most of them are musical in sound and not so difficult to pronounce. The county name which will be found most frequently testing the ability of strangers to pronounce is Geauga, one of the older group of Ohio counties. It was the second county established on the reserve—T. S. Paul preceding it.

Originally it was spelled Sheauga and the name was first applied in that vicinity to what is called Grand river. The Indians called the river Sheauga. Shepe being their name for river.

The first settlement in Geauga county was Burton.

Thingamabob Roy Howard's checkered shirt caused crowds to follow him in Moscow when he went to interview Stalin. Noel Coward's latest is white shirt with vivid colored collars. Gov. Alf Landon likes a good Oppenheim mystery. Raeburn Van Buren successful magazine illustrator still attends art classes. Anthony Eden likes green olives with salt and breakfast. Harvard Brown dines with his mother once a week and is always lectured for his union labor sympathies. The smart shops of Paris are leaving the rue de la Paix for the Faubourg St. Honore.

Coalition Talk Circulating

Grand Thing in Theory, But Rather Impractical.

(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

Talk of establishing a "coalition government" at Washington is raising much talk and many mischievous hints of backstage overtures and underground negotiation. The subject is most intriguing in theory, it would be a grand thing for all of the ablest men in the country to assemble in a common endeavor to lift the nation out of the depression. Looked at practically and in the light of experience, however, the proposal is seen to embrace many serious difficulties.

To be first place there is no assurance that any impressive number of first-rate men would be willing to "coalesce" in the second place there is the question of a program that could get along together for more than five minutes if they did. Finally there is the problem whether the long-established parties could possibly be brought down to permit a real coalition.

It is an enticing thing to talk about and it might happen but few practical politicians appear to be taking the prospect very seriously.

Has Happened in Cabinet

Of course there would be no thing difficult or novel about adding on a both political parties sitting together in the cabinet. This has happened often.

Mr. Hoover had in his cabinet Mitchell and Secretary Adams—who were listed as Democrats. Mr. Roosevelt has in his cabinet two non-Secretaries Wallace and Ickes—who have been Republicans.

It even is possible to conceive of a situation (although it does not strain on the imagination) where a cabinet might be composed of such men as Alfred E. Smith, Andrew Mellon, John W. Davis and James W. Wadsworth or conversely such men as William E. Borah, Hugh S. Johnson, Robert M. La Follette and Harry L. Hopkins.

Arrangements like these however hardly fit the definition of coalition government as it is understood in those European countries where it is practiced. What happens there is that the groups included are not so disconnected elements, but the coalition leadership of two or more political parties.

Such a conception would more likely be a bringing Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt with their principal adherents together in one cabinet.

Unlike American Theory

No one has suggested that such a step would be either possible or desirable. It may work in some instances in foreign countries but the practice of party rule is deeply ingrained in the American States.

Whether it is a good thing or not the theory that the President and his official family must stand together and think as much alike as possible is as much a part of the American method as is the party system itself.

During that brief initial period before party organizations took form there was a real coalition government. In this country Thomas Jefferson sat across the cabinet table from Alexander Hamilton under the presidency of Washington.

Now even the far removed disciples of these two seem either unable or unwilling to go along together in governmental effort.

After Mr. Harding was elected President he had a fleeting idea of coalition. He announced he would summon to Washington the best minds of the country. But all these bright minds turned out to be Republican minds.

Coalition is a beautiful word—when spoken of in the future and no attempt made to apply it specifically.

Amazing Youngsters

The senates crop of youngsters—those who rode in on the unprecedented wave of Roosevelt popularity in 1934—are amazing old timers by the way they are stepping out these days.

Holt, West Virginia, Minister of Indian Affairs, Schwellenbach of Washington, even that old war horse of politics Bilbo of Mississippi who has been observed as a self-imposed exile of silence—have been prancing across the floor pages during the last few weeks with as much gusto as the oldest senators in point of service.

Only "Honorable" Victor Donahue of Ohio seems to have resisted temptation to join the parade. He privately has his idea about it but he has not broken his silence.

There are varying opinions as to how these new senators have acquitted themselves in their first attempt.

Bilbo Met Reverses

Bilbo of course suffered a crushing defeat. Five hours of play of oratory on his part block the confirmation of a federal judge netted him only four votes including his own in the showdown.

Minton and Schwellenbach, however, have been savage attacks on those who would attempt to thwart their legislative action. Only time can prove how effective their actions have been.

Benson of Minnesota, who rushed to Washington to take the place of the late Senator Schwellenbach, has been active but his career in the senate ends with the present session. He plans to return tonesota and run for governor next year on the Farmer Labor ticket.

Noted Chef Laments Rarity of Women Who Know Food

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, April 16—A woman who knows how to eat is rare, said a noted French chef yesterday. "A lady is no lady unless she knows food," he said.

He has cooked for presidents and has been distressed because he has found that even less about food than he thought. "I have seen D. C. diners more than New York," he said. "I have seen more game—probably because they are hunters at heart."

He said that America will ever be a land of plover's eggs. He said that the plover's eggs are the most delicious dish—I prefer a piece of cheese—but plover eggs are interesting.

"However, I fear America's preference will always be red meat, steaks and chops, with some lettuce," he said.

Women would profit, he said, by conning a cook-book "as part of their preparation for a sophisticated life—just as they study to improve their bridge game."

"But they should realize you can't become a fine cook unless you are a man, and began as a boy; you can't learn at 25."

SPRING SONGS FOR MOTORISTS

Oh, the buttercups are cupping,
And the dew is on the posies,
There's spring in every young man's step,
And colds in people's noses—
In short, it is the time of year
When one dreams at his toll—
And, please recall this vital fact:
It's time to change your oil.

Yes, spring is in the air, folks,
Farewell to winter's chill—
Change now to Gulfube Summer Grade
And duck a damage bill!

Oh, the robins are up from the Southland,

OHIO FARMERS JOIN JOB INSURANCE FIGHT

Grange Leader Envisions Heavy Burden with Minimum of Benefits.

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS O. April 16.—Proponents of an unemployment insurance law for Ohio backed opposition from farm interests today while a special senate committee studying the subject invited other opponents to appear next Wednesday.

Walter F. Kirk, leader of the State Grange, told the committee yesterday that farmers believed they would bear much of the burden without receiving any benefits in the long run.

W. H. Storey, general counsel for Allis Chalmers Co. of Milwaukee, joined all speakers before the committee in urging more exhaustive study before adopting any plan of insurance. He recommended delaying action until after the Wisconsin individual reserve plan had been tested. First payments in Wisconsin start July 1.

"There are no experts in the United States on unemployment insurance," he said.

He described the primary purpose of the Wisconsin plan as establishment of regular employment rather than payment of an unemployment wage. The plan keeps employers separate with employee making no contributions. Rates range from four per cent.

Dr. Edwin S. Todd, professor of economics at Miami university, said experience with unemployment insurance in Great Britain and Germany had been unsatisfactory.

A report also is to be kept of accounts the second three-month period from April 1 to June 30 and during the month of July the two reports are to be filed together.

WENDEL EXONERATED BUT NOT SET FREE

Murder Warrant Sworn Out by Mrs. Hauptmann Still Pending.

By The Associated Press. TRENTON N. J. April 16.—The last desperate attempt of Mrs. Bruno Richard Hauptmann to halt the electrocution of her husband delayed today the release of Paul H. Wendel despite his exoneration by the Mercer county grand jury of implication in the Lindbergh kidnapping.

Wendel was held in jail here because a murder warrant sworn out by Mrs. Anna Hauptmann in Hunterdon county the day Bruno Hauptmann died in the electric chair still was pending.

The jury voted no bill without dissent last night and received having the likelihood of further investigation of Wendel or collateral phases of his case.

The Wendel verdict will be presented to Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard presiding jurist of the county and the judge who sat at Hauptmann's trial on April 28.

Any further developments in the Wendel case, it was indicated, would come from Brooklyn, N. Y., where authorities were investigating his story that he was imprisoned and tortured until he confessed the kidnapping murder. Brooklyn authorities said they were anxious to have Wendel there as soon as possible to aid them in their inquiry.

Freedom for Wendel also has been hindered in this county by several civil embroilments. Brooklyn officials were hopeful that Wendel would be admitted to bail on those charges so he could go with them.

The grand jury action constituted the first major defeat in many years of Ellis H. Parker, chief of Burlington county detectives who obtained the Wendel confession. Parker told the grand jury he was taking his life regularly as a detective that Wendel was the Lindbergh kidnaper.

Another matter on the program will be return to duty of three furloughed patrolmen whose salaries are to be paid for at least a three-month period from subscriptions taken from business men.

Is Now Rid Of Pain In Arms That Kept Her Awake Nights

Kidneys were too active, stomach out of order, was constipated daily. Says the new medicine Vendol gave astonishing relief.

When you are suffering and rundown the cheapest medicine to buy is the one that will bring relief most quickly. Sometimes as is the case with Vendol this medicine may cost you a little more than patent medicines but it is well worth while as is evidenced by the number of people who are telling how this new medicine has given them marvelous relief.

Mrs. Anna Oglesbee, well known nurse residing at 14 S. Main St., says: "I had such severe pains in my back, arms and limbs that I was awake during the night and had to rub them and often take something to get me to sleep. My kidneys were too active and got me up during the night from three to four times and kept me going all day long."

My stomach was out of order and I often had sour belchings after meals the gas was bad and dizzy spells would rush over me so I had to sit down till they passed off."

I had to take something for relief."

Vendol is sold and recommended by all leading druggists everywhere and Hennessey & Cooper, Inc. Their full recommendation letter is at once taking and see how quickly you will be able to improve.

Dr. Elmer R. Arns of Dayton, grand master of the grand lodge of Ohio was a guest of honor at the principal speaker when Marion Lodge No. 10, E. and A. M., held its 15th annual district assembly last night at the Eagles temple.

Two of the prints were smudged and the other three were not particularly distinct. Experts hope, however, the enlargements could give them a satisfactory basis for checking.

The meeting was preceded by a dinner served at 6:30 o'clock. During the evening, William Derry entertained with two vocal solos.

GRAND JURY TO ACT

KENTON, April 16 — Robert Nichols of Kenton was bound to the grand jury after a hearing in court of Mayor W. C. Bopp upon a charge of maintaining a L. L. Penrose with an iron bar. Penrose said Nichols struck him on the arm with the rod, breaking the bone in two places. Unable to provide $500 bond, the defendant went to jail.

OLD NRA DELAYS NEW WARSHIPS

42 of 76 Battleships Will Not Be Completed in Scheduled Time.

WASHINGTON, April 16 — A delay in completion of at least 42 of the 76 warships now being built to bring the navy up to full authorized strength was disclosed yesterday in a navy department report on construction progress.

Naval officers said the delay in construction, started many months ago, was caused by the shortage of work week under the old NRA and strikes in private shipyards.

The report showed of the 76 ships 30 were expected to be completed before the end of the year, 22 were more than two-thirds finished, and five had passed the halfway mark.

Dates Are Moved Ahead

Shipyards, including navy yards, have reported, however, the completion date, as specified in the contracts, must be moved ahead on the calendar from one month to one year on many vessels to meet conditions unforeseen when the contracts were signed.

Navy officers recalled Rear Admiral E. S. Land, chief of the bureau of construction and repair, had warned at hearings on the NRA ship building code that a reduction in working hours below 40 hours a week "would interfere unduly with the proper prosecution of the naval building program, as well as with the normal ship repairing activities of the navy and private shipyards."

Delayed by Code Hours

A study of the shipbuilding code, just issued by the NRA, division of review, asserted "peak employment on naval contracts was seriously delayed by the code hours."

The new naval treaty among the United States, Great Britain and France was discussed at a luncheon conference yesterday by President Roosevelt and Norman Davis, head of the American delegation to the recent London naval conference.

At this press conference earlier, the President was asked if the treaty would be sent to the senate for ratification during this session of congress, but he said no decision had been reached.

Davis left last night for New York, but will return early next week and it was understood a decision might be made then.

SCOUTS WIN NEW HONORS

MT. GILEAD, April 16 — Seven Morrow county boy scouts from the Iberia, Chesterville and Carlington troops were awarded merit badges or advanced in rank at the district court of honor at Iberia Tuesday night.

'BARE' CONTROVERSY

Ill feeling between the nude colony at the San Diego exposition, headed by Tanya, blond queen, above, was "bared" when the nudists picketed the show of Sally Rand, fan dancer, whom they claimed was compromising them by commercializing her charms in a dance which was not true art.

POPE ASKED TO CALL HOLY YEAR

Jubilee Would Celebrate His 80th Birthday and Permit Catholics To Take Part.

VATICAN CITY, April 16 — Pope Pius XI had under consideration today a suggestion to proclaim a jubilee year beginning May 31 to celebrate the 80th year of his life.

The pope, oldest ruling monarch in the world, will be 79 years old on the May date.

The suggestion was advanced by ecclesiastical and lay dignitaries who indicated their desire for the entire Roman Catholic church to celebrate the holy father's birthday.

To the proposal the pope declared he appreciated the demonstration of affection, but said he desired to reflect on what form the church celebration should take if it were approved.

A jubilee year would, it was predicted, produce a favorable effect on Italian finances since there was a considerable reduction in tourist trade after inspection of economic and financial sanctions against Italy for her aggression in east Africa.

The reigning head of the Catholic church has 30 years more on his shoulders than the average of his royal colleagues. Since he became a temporal monarch, he has seen many changes in the college of kings.

During his reign, Carol II as-ended to the throne of Rumania; King Alexander of Yugoslavia died from an assassin's bullet; Albert of Belgium was accidentally killed; George V of Great Britain died and was succeeded by his son, Edward VIII; Alfonso of Spain was sent into exile; George II of Greece was recalled to the throne in a plebiscite.

Lloyd Kelly, Legion post head, said today the Legionnaires also would be deputized to aid the sheriff if needed. Ten blasts on the city fire siren will be the minute-men's call.

DENIES ASSAULT CHARGE

MARYSVILLE, April 16 — Lawrence Johnston, 35, farmer of Mill-creek township, pleaded not guilty to charges of assault and battery filed by Joe Derlo, 34, a neighboring farmer, when he was arraigned before Justice J. H. Kinkade here Wednesday afternoon.

Johnston was bound over to the Union county grand jury. The fight started when one of Johnston's cows wandered into a corn field on Derlo's farm.

MAN, 83, IN SECOND LOVE SUIT IN YEAR

Wealthy Caldwell, O., Banker Faces $100,000 Breach of Promise Trial.

By The Associated Press

CALDWELL, O., April 16 — Eugene Smith, 83-year-old wealthy retired banker, became defendant yesterday in a second breach of promise suit within less than a year.

Miss Adelaide M. Jones, formerly of Zanesville, sued Smith for $100,000, charging that he promised to marry her after a 10-year companionship, but postponed the wedding July 25, 1935, when he was sued for $50,000 heart balm by Miss Nellie Tilton of Caldwell. The Tilton suit was settled out of court.

Miss Jones' petition stated that she and Smith had traveled extensively since 1925, spending several winters in St. Petersburg, Fla., and in 1934 taking a business trip to the Pacific coast.

They planned to be married in Hot Springs, Ark., she said, following several proposals by Smith. She asked $100,000 damages for humiliation and loss of marital companionship.

Golden Rain

They were sweet good girls. Iris stood for the moment frozen to silence by all this. As Georgia said, who would believe the fact that somebody ever had told her; that she had never even known about Phina and Owen's existence until this hour.

Courage from somewhere came up to carry her. She faced Mrs. Morgan's unmoved waiting eyes. Allan's watching face under the white colonial wig.

"It is true that I didn't know who and what my mother was. My father's people never told me, even that I had a brother and an aunt here. I can't expect you to take to me a stranger among you. But I live it to you."

And still Allan stood facing her, smiling a little, silent, away from her. Allan, who had said softly, "When are you going to make me happy?"—Allan, who had singled her out, who was her lover.

But as she stood there in her rose and black 1870 finery, feeling more outcast and betrayed than she had known anyone could feel, Camilla's strong arm came around her waist, Camilla's steady voice spoke.

"Mrs. Morgan, do you want proof?" The old lady spoke for the first time. "Under the circumstances, I have to ask for it. I disapprove of Miss Blair's methods, but she is right."

"Iris, think. You can find someone to witness that you didn't know about all this. The uncle and aunt who didn't tell you. Could you get them here before the concert tonight?"

She raised her head. "I can do better than that. There's a man who boards with my uncle, Mr. Black. He knows I thought I had no mother and brother when he came. He was up in the attic, helping me open a trunk; he heard my aunt, Mrs. Lanning, telling me about it when I found the things inside. Though, naturally, after this I shall withdraw my name from the League and not sing in the concert."

Camilla held her fast. "Not you. You'll go through with it." "Naturally you'll stand up for her, you fool," said Georgia furiously. "She did a good job for you. She managed it so Owen broke with that Silverheels girl he is in love with yet, and flung him into your hands on the rebound."

The arm Camilla had around Iris quivered, but Camilla spoke on steadily. "Iris doesn't scheme. If that's true—I suppose you mean the girl he brought to Allan's party—it's my fault for showing him so plainly I cared. And I will deal with it later."

$300,000 FIRE SWEEPS TOWN

23 of 25 Business District Buildings Razed by Blaze in Indiana Community.

By The Associated Press
DEMOTTE, Ind., April 14.—Fire swept through 23 business buildings and a residence here last night, causing damage estimated at $300,000. A high wind fanned the flames, the origin of which was undetermined.

Demotte is in Jasper county in the northwestern corner of the state.

The fire started in a warehouse of the Al Kinsley Lumber Co. and quickly spread to two other buildings. A wind from the northwest picked up the flames and spread them over the business area of the town, setting fire to other buildings.

Demotte has no water supply and citizens of the town made a futile effort to halt the spread of the blaze by forming bucket brigades.

Fire fighting equipment from nearby towns also answered a call, but the firemen were forced to haul water to the scene and then pump it on to the flames.

Most of the buildings were destroyed in the residential district by flying embers before the blaze spent itself.

A school, a church, a bank and a hotel were the only major buildings left standing in the business district.

All telephone communication was cut off and electric facilities also were disrupted.

CHURCH ASSEMBLY GETS CLOSEUP VIEW OF RUSSIA

Bucyrus Minister Tells Convention Here of His Experience With Bolshevik Regime.

Conducts in Russia as viewed by a former teacher in the school were brought before approximately 75 Evangelical ministers and laymen at the morning session of a Sunday conference of the Columbus district of the Ohio conference at the Calvary Evangelical church.

The speaker was Rev. A. M. Froese of Bucyrus, who spoke on "The Horrors of Bolshevism." In 1922 he escaped from Russia and he is now affiliated with the Missionary Church association.

Froese is the principal of Bolshevism and hatred in its base, he told the audience. Christianity, based on love, and Bolshevism can never co-exist in solving the world's problems because of the opposing forces of love and hate, he said.

Populace Deceived

The Russians were deceived when Bolshevism was introduced, according to Rev. Froese, and now Russia is ruled, not by Russians, but by a foreign element. Out of 52 Russian states, only two have native Russian governors.

He said that Lenin and Trotsky opened the reign of terror in 1917 when they opened the prison.

In addition to ministers and laymen from adjacent counties, the attendance this morning included men from Columbus, Greenville, Lancaster, Millersport, Stoutsville and Baltimore.

The morning session closed with a devotional address by Dr. J. A. Huffman, president of the Evangelical Theological seminary at Marion, Ind., on "The Meaning of God."

Dr. Huffman and Rev. Oscar Wago of Columbus, superintendent of Christian missionary and evangelistic work among the Jews, were to speak this afternoon, and tonight Dr. Huffman will talk on

A. T. & T. SHOWS BUSINESS GAIN

201,000 New Telephones Installed in Three Months; 113,000 Last Year.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, April 14.—Walter H. Gifford, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., said at the annual stockholders meeting yesterday that the Bell System had gained 201,000 telephones first quarter this year compared with a net gain of 113,000 the same period of 1931.

During first week in April, Gifford said, stations increased 17,000 compared with a gain of 10,000 in the corresponding week last year and long distance calls from the larger cities showed a gain of about 19 per cent.

Refers to Inquiry

Gifford told stockholders that the federal communications commission investigation of the company still involved the operation of a large force of investigators in the offices of the company.

"There is some question in my mind," Gifford said, "as to whether it is possible for the public to get a correct picture of the facts by the procedure which has been followed in the hearings held thus far."

"We are making every effort to get something constructive out of the investigation," Gifford added.

A stockholder questioned Gifford regarding the activities of the company in the motion picture field.

Gifford said that the company's interest in this line of business had proved very profitable and that at present some $250,000 was invested in the financing of pictures.

May Total Is Small

The total of pictures financed, he said, represented only five tenths of one per cent of the motion picture production of the country.

American Telephone, he stated, had no desire to go into the motion picture business in a big way. He revealed, however, that motion picture business has brought in more than $250,000 to stockholders of American Telephone through activities of various subsidiaries in that line of business.

Company reported consolidated net income for itself and 23 associated companies for 12 months ended Feb. 29 of $138,545,726, equal to $1.43 a share on capital stock, compared with $1.11 in 1931, or $1.98 a share 12 months ended Feb. 28, 1930.

Earnings on a parent-company basis for 12 months ended March 31, 1932, subject to minor charges, showed net income of $130,157,095.

HURRAY! I'VE DISCOVERED A GREASELESS WAY TO WASH DISHES. NOT ONLY DO DISHES COME SHINY-BRIGHT, BUT—they don't have a greasy film left on them. That's because Rinso's rich suds absorb the grease—make every bit of it vanish completely. And though Rinso suds are so rich and suds that they get rid of grease in double-quick time—they're kind to hands.

In rub washing, Rinso's creamy suds soak clothes 4 or 5 shades whiter and brighter without rubbing or boiling. The makers of 33 famous washing machines recommend Rinso. It's economical—a little goes so far. Get the BIG shiny box.
